Introduction; How Did We Get Here?

The current situation can be traced back to November 21st 2024. Among the artwork displayed in the Toyhouse account belonging to a member of the now-former-ZCP, a piece portraying an incestual relationship between Norma Coughs and Eve III was discovered. This event eventually led to the massive unrolling of secrets this document concerns about; on such it was learnt that the main creator and writer of Sparklecare: Kittycorn. The creator supports and draws art of several incestuous relationships. Just a small selection being Sly III x Eve III and Norma Coughs x Eve III. It can be assumed from information that almost every related character is involved in a relationship with each other.

This image was accidentally stumbled upon by the crit community, and the art was drawn by one of Kittycorn's partners as an assumed favor. A friend of the artist reached out to them, informing them of the accidental leaking of the suggestive incest art. [The art has been taken down long ago.] This caused a panic within a private server of Kittycorn's, and we were able to obtain screenshots of the chats within the server.

The following screenshots are of the conversation after this drawing was found.

you HAVE TO lie in a situation like this. there is no "i dont like it" hes right i think, everyone is kind of in danger right now chaosblasts Yesterday at 4:05 PM

these people complain about the tiniest of things anything they can find to be mad about honestly and i can guarantee if they were obsessed enough to find porn on a random clowns toyhouse, they will start looking into jay and ame as known proshippers 'in the fandom' Scuba Steve Yesterday at 4:07 PM if theyve interacted with Him as i heard they have hes probably already talked about those two aswell
chaosblasts Yesterday at 4:08 PM start asking if They know, if Theyre involved, if Theyre the reason kitty is into this stuff, or maybe kitty is a proshipper too and was lying about no longer speaking with them nothing on the internet is private. nothing. as soon as you upload something it is out of your hands forever. you use jays art as profile pics sometimes, right? and ame uses an old commission i did. those are public. people can see those if theyre at all competent its just going to get worse.
Emsody Yesterday at 4:09 PM
nick i think you need to take a step back you said you were going to otherwise you'd get angry and you're stressing kitty out

Emsody Yesterday at 3:47 PM
i can't be the person who lies somebody else is gonna have to take over for me if that's the case

chaosblasts Yesterday at 3:39 PM
why even

CLEVER GIRL Yesterday at 3:39 PM
if your character is private your images will be public if they arent set to private Emsody Yesterday at 3:39 PM

Emsody Yesterday at 3:46 PM

chaosblasts Yesterday at 3:48 PM

but im going to start saying some really really not nice things if i am i threw out the best case scenario options anyway, we're past the point of it ending well

Yesterday at 4:17 PM
I suggest your story be this Emsody drew it. That's true. You didn't have any idea of its existence on toyhouse. That's also true. Kai has removed it and it won't be shown again. That's true as well.

You don't have to say anything about why it exists, only that it's been taken care of and both parties have been spoken to.

CLEVER GIRL Yesterday at 4:18 PM
but that demonizes both kai and emsody

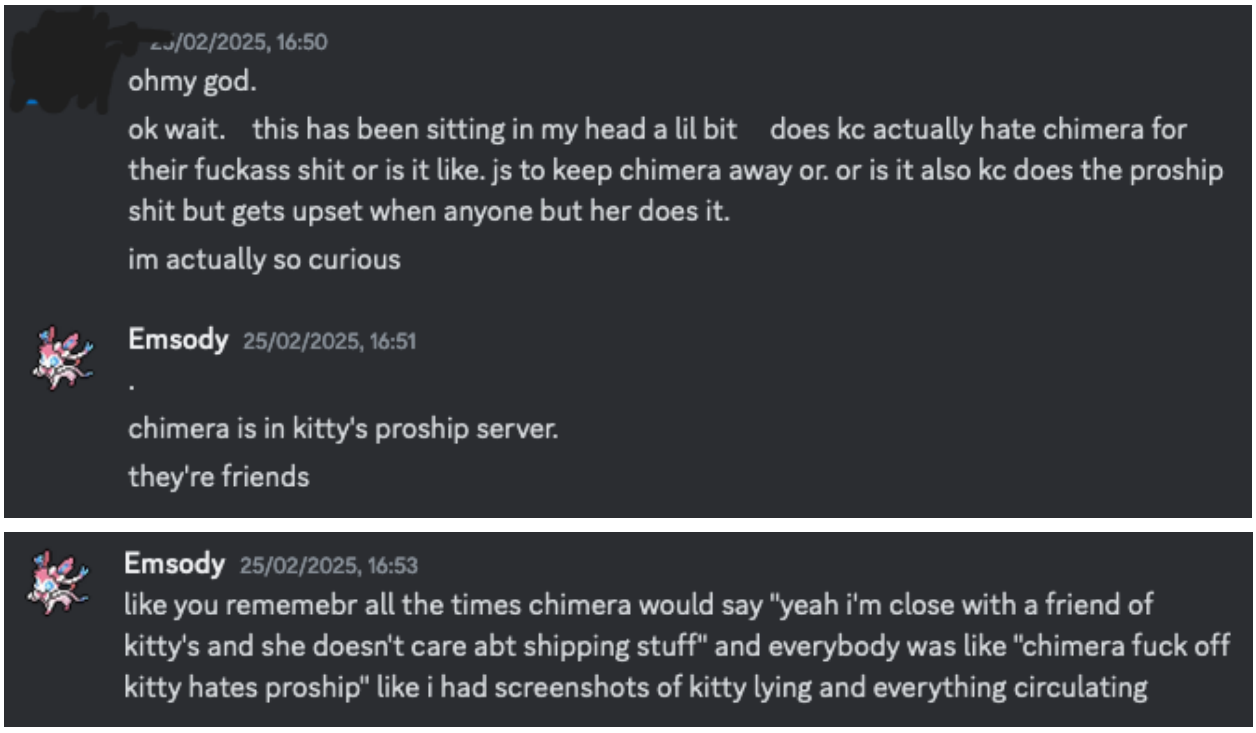
Association to Predators / Alleged Groomers + Pedophiles

It was mentioned that Kittycorn possibly has communication (and a friend server with) infamous groomers and proshippers within the Sparklecare community. Such as ChimeraCreations, Woofledog, as of 3/11/25 Chimera and Kittycorn have been confirmed to be friends.



/02/2025, 16:50
ohmy god.
ok wait. this has been sitting in my head a lil bit does kc actually hate chimera for their fuckass shit or is it like. js to keep chimera away or. or is it also kc does the proship shit but gets upset when anyone but her does it.

Chimera is a notorious pro-shipper, groomer and pedophile within the Sparklecare community.

Oliver Bouler

As of 3/11/2025, another victim(@vsrobotjulie) came forth telling her story of being groomed by Oliver Bouler. Oliver being a friend of Kittycorn's and a member of the (now defunct) ZCP

When Juno reached out to Kittycorn through Tumblr asks, questioning if Kittycorn was still friends with Oliver, Kittycorn never responded. It can be assumed that Kittycorn is still friends with Oliver, 5 years after the victim came forward.

Please read the full story from the victim here, and give her support, this is just a short summary for the document. This account holds screenshots of proof of grooming, cinnadibfilthpedoproof. (Which can also be found on the victim's post.)

Emsody

Emsody groomed a 14 year old when they were 18, proudly going around and making jokes of it too. In a conversation with Chaosblast, it is also shown that Kittycorn knew about the grooming and still dated and befriend Emsody.

Imani

Imani is a close friend of Kittycorn's, who also self-shipped incestuously and sent porn to a minor. (The screenshot is a repost, just to kick this off.)

What was Imani's reaction even Emsody 12/10/2024 7:48 PM
to insert her own oc into the family and the incestuous dynamic her fursona is unis daughter. and she's a uni selfshipper. so having incest be ok makes that ship ok. she was very excited

WHAT THE FUCK??

A conversation between an anonymous person and Chaos/Nick provided further evidence. Emsody before has said that there were drawn depictions of the adult x child art aswell, and at first people only took this by word of mouth. Nick later confirmed (in the screenshot) that this cannot be given because he doesnt want to throw anyone else under the bus and because he's only willing to give the bare minimum for safety reasons.

@hell-hospital-blog

As of March 10th, 2025, the document has been published, and more information has come to light. The sibling of ChimeraCreations has spoken out and given us screenshots of Kittycorn supposedly silencing them and telling them not to speak on their experiences of Chimera abusing them. We had permission to add them to the document in the post mentioned.

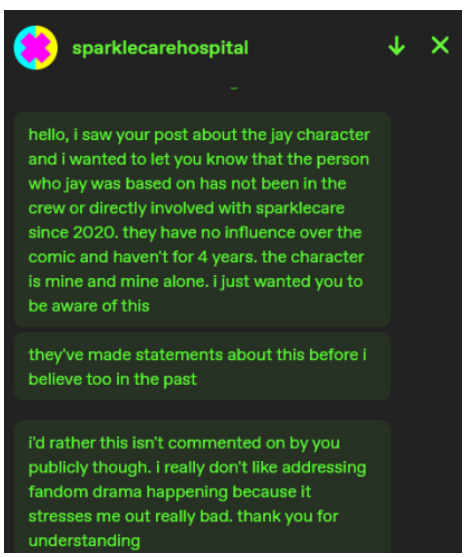
hi what the actual fuck is going on HUH take the screencaps of when kc dmed me telling me to not talk about the effect chimera (my literal sibling who, despite his claims, has in fact traumatized and misgendered me) left on me (and chimera in general) and also not wanting to talk about how including jay would make me uncomfortable due to their friendship (at least at the time? are they still friends? they were at the time of this dm), claiming kit didnt want the comic ruined for me



sparklecarehospital
hello, i saw your post about the jay character and i wanted to let you know that the person who jay was based on has not been in the crew or directly involved with sparklecare since 2020. they have no influence over the comic and haven't for 4 years. the character is mine and mine alone. i just wanted you to be aware of this they've made statements about this before i believe too in the past i'd rather this isn't commented on by you publicly though. i really don't like addressing fandom drama happening because it stresses me out really bad. thank you for understanding

sparklecarehospital
im not forcing you to include jay in your AU, but i just wanted you to be aware of this because i think some people arent historically, especially recently, i'm prone to getting harassed when i make statements or comments addressing things like this or setting boundaries which is why i haven't spoken about this publicly. recently when i commented on those criticism blogs that were popping up people were genuinely horrible to me when i made my boundaries post back in summer of last year i think, people called me slurs. not to mention i have been doxxed

sparklecarehospital
thank you for letting me know, super sorry that I made comments on it, I wasn't aware of the stuff that went on, just the parts that involved me I'll delete the posts, again, very sorry, I know that people were being horrible to you, I just didn't think I was popular in any way that it would lead back to you its not a problem, i totally understand why you would feel that way, especially considering what your sibling is like. i hope you're doing okay i really like your characters and art and AU
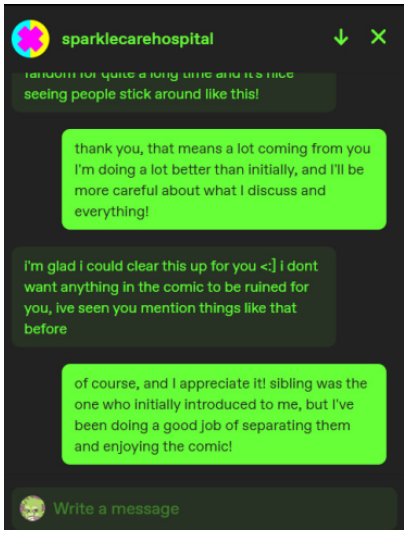
i keep an eye on people who have been in the fandom for quite a long time and it's nice



sparklecarehospital
seeing people stick around like this!
thank you, that means a lot coming from you I'm doing a lot better than initially, and I'll be more careful about what I discuss and everything!
i'm glad i could clear this up for you <:] i dont want anything in the comic to be ruined for you, ive seen you mention things like that before of course, and I appreciate it! sibling was the one who initially introduced to me, but I've been doing a good job of separating them and enjoying the comic!

Incest in Projects

Kitty has multiple projects, one of them being Cometcare, which is what she calls the best possible ending for Sparklecare, where Barry, Uni, Doom, and Polly all marry and have a relationship together, with 9 kids. Emsody revealed multiple cases of incest being interwoven within this story, from Sly and Eve having unrealized feelings for each other, to Sly meeting one of his friends at an incest support group in Kittycorn canon (not public canon) explanation, to multiple cases of Sly art being edited to be with Sly's boyfriend, Carl D. Games, instead of Eve. It's the same case with the other characters, as Chem is drawn with a blue fox plushie, which according to Kitty's "plushie theory", series of art that includes younger versions of the characters holding plushies that foreshadow future partners, implies that Polly Klepsky, Chem's parent, is their partner. Emsody would later confirm this.

First-Hand Images and Discussions of in Comic Incest

This will be a shorter section, as no one involved in making this document had direct access to any of these screen caps.
If it was not obvious already, the conversation and the Toyhouse image leak were the tip of a much larger iceberg, which caused a much larger wave of learning. Of every single ship and incestuous intent.
Every character has romantic or sexual relations with at least one family member. Incest is written in mind for most characters. In other words, if they have a sibling or parent, they engage in incestual relations.

Honestly I can see what the intent is in context
But it could have been presented better with like Dialogue like "big bro" or "sis" because these characters are not obviously siblings
It was just poorly executed, I understand what they were going for Emsody 11/23/2023 7:10 PM
honestly even if they had added that it would probably put emphasis on the sibling relation without taking any emphasis off the romant tension so it might come across as, like..... More Message @Eve

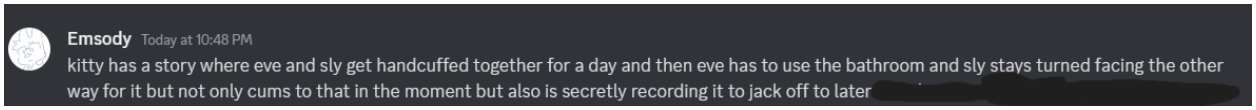
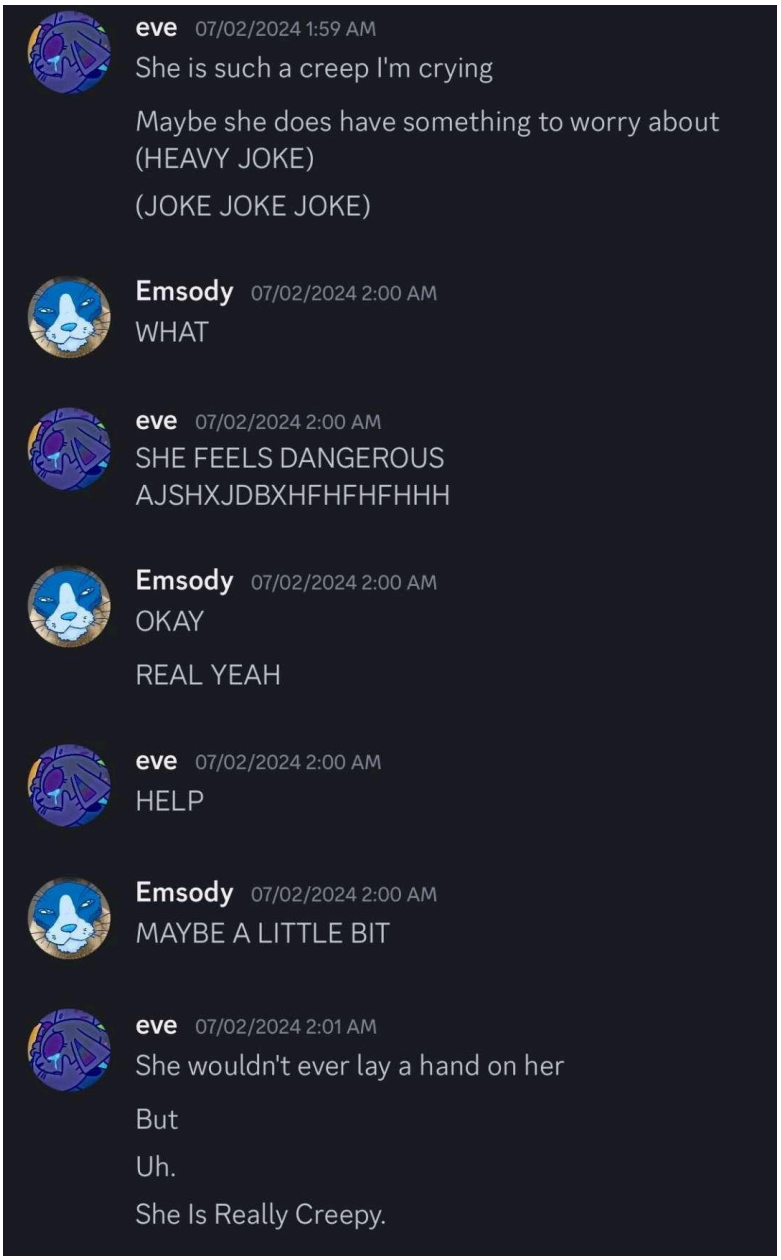
The following discussions speaks mainly for themselves, with Kittycorn implying multiple times fen's interest in incestual relationships in fiction.
For those uninformed, this is the [Folgers Incest Commercial]



Emsody Today at 10:48 PM
kitty has a story where eve and sly get handcuffed together for a day and then eve has to use the bathroom and sly stays turned facing the other way for it but not only cums to that in the moment but also is secretly recording it to jack off to later

The above screenshot is a retelling of one of Sly's many creepy actions towards Eve. The following screenshots would be referencing Sly towards Eve, likely referencing Sly's predatory behavior towards Eve.



This image was a meme image created by Kittycorn's former partner, with the images used being actual art of the characters. The bottom right being one of the only actual incest drawings we get to see by Kittycorn kitself. The pink + white cat/bug in the 3rd panel with Norma is Lainey Bird, who will appear many times in the next section.

[18+, NSFW] Sly x Eve Porn Incest Comics

As of 3/11/25, 2 Sly x Eve incest porn comics were leaked. You can find them in the following google drive. Solution (175 pages, CW: Cub, Incest), Headaches (64 pages CW: Incest)

Assorted screencaps from Emsody:

The following screenshots involve Emsody admitting that the plushie Chem is holding is supposed to represent Polly, implying that they are both in a romantic relationship, despite it being canon that Chem's partner is a completely different character.

(A number of these message screencaps will be filtered by Emsody's username to avoid image bloat, and to cut out a lot of side chat that was either just reactions or unrelated)

It is also implied that every instance of siblings has the possibility of incest, with Emsody confirming that Doom gets in a relationship with one of his daughters, Cream, because she reminds him of Mood, his twin sister.

Insect has been an assumed codeword for “incest” multiple times, with Norma being the “#1 Insect Lover” and the aforementioned Lainey and Song being half insect/ladybug. Doom and Mood are both half spider, so this refers to them as well. Additionally, there is the code phrase “animals” or “talking about animals” which is used to talk about incest. This is a phrase KC uses publicly in reference to multiple characters. There are many other codewords/phrases Kittycorn uses to our knowledge, however, at the time we don't really know what those are.

Emsody 12/22/2024 3:43 AM oh the do whatever you want forever is about shipping incest sorry thats what that image is thats always what it was

There are also multiple instances of Kitty's self-inserts being shipped with mainly teenage characters, despite herself being 24. Some notable examples are Ally (18) and Eve (17) being shipped with Howie and Scrap (both 18) respectively. Sly is said to be 19, which also makes her and Eve's relationship predatory. Eve and Ally are also related to another one of her F/Os, Uni, who is their mother.

TRIVIA

- Eve and Marco were designed in October 2020 on the same night, and I consider their creation to be the "final forming" of the Comet family
- Eve is my self insert into Cometcare

TRIVIA

- Ally's original name was Al Ill-Cornelius when kit was first designed
- Originally, Ally had golden wings
- Barry and Uni made Ally's middle name "Star" because of the significance stars have to their relationship
- Ally is based on a childhood OC of mine who would also manifest in the character Lav from Karmageddeon
- Ally is one of my fursonas and where my name comes from!

A lot of Sly/Eve art is edited to not imply their romantic relationship, such as any instance of Eve's plushie being hue-shifted from blue to pink:

[redacted] [redacted] 12/13/2024 3:39 PM

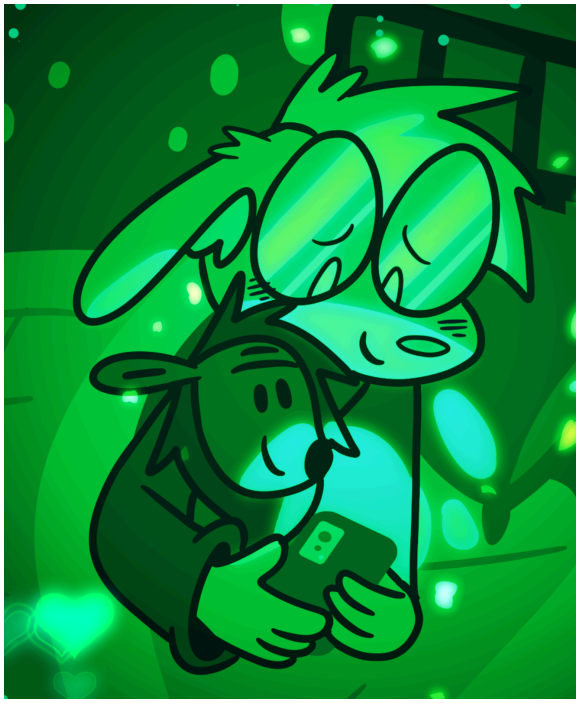
Em told me that the plush was actually blue to represent sly but kc changed the colors on all the art she makes with the plush because kc didn't want anyone figuring out that sly was the plush theory of eve

Someone hue shifted the plushie to check.

It’s also a pattern that any instance of spirals/hearts and a pink/blue background with either Sly/Eve indicates ship art between the two.

There are also multiple instances of the pink “cog” (cat/dog) with Eve, despite no canon character resembling the plushie, which is what the plushie theory is supposed to imply, meaning Emsody was correct about Kittycorn hue-shifting it from blue to pink.

There are also multiple cases of Sly holding a “tiolf” (tiger/wolf) plushie, despite his canon partner being a dragon. This has been an ongoing confusion within the fandom as to why and what it implies but from what kc has said publicly is only meant to be perceived as a “comfort item” but privately has been told it has been a way to divert suspicious of people finding out that sly's plush theory is actually meant to be eve, eves plush being blue to represent sly and sly’s plush being pink to represent eve, and the reasons they have swapped plushies to allude to their love for eachother. Unfortunately there is no reliable unedited picture of proof for this like the other drawing, but there is a given statement by kcs (now ex and former zcp)



This is a connection a crit member made. It's assumed that the swirls are meant to represent either Eve or sly, with some of the artworks matching their color palette.

(note, most sections after this are going to be relatively smaller than the first one, due to limited screenshots and the rest being more or so "allegations")
Incest in Relationships

Incest in Relationships

Kittycorn's incest obsession doesn't end with just fiction, as it affects her actual relationships as well. According to Emsody, kit has requested that she be called "little sis" and basically infantilized by her romantic and/or sexual partners, and she would refer to the partner as an older sibling figure and infantize herself for the sake of "gender representation".

Sparklecare Hospital is a Fetish Comic

According to allegations Emsody has brought up against Kittycorn, Sparklecare prominently contains fetish content for Kittycorn and ex-ZCP. Certain characters, actions and a majority of jokes are based around oddly specific kinks and fetishes. Even reading up you can find allusions to a few (such as pee and feces). Fetishes will not be listed or named in a neat order to keep Kittycorn's dignity despite the horrible things she has portrayed to her audience. Please take this with a grain of salt since all existing evidence of this claim has been deleted or just taken by word. This was only added because having an audience unknowingly engage with your fetishes is highly looked down upon.

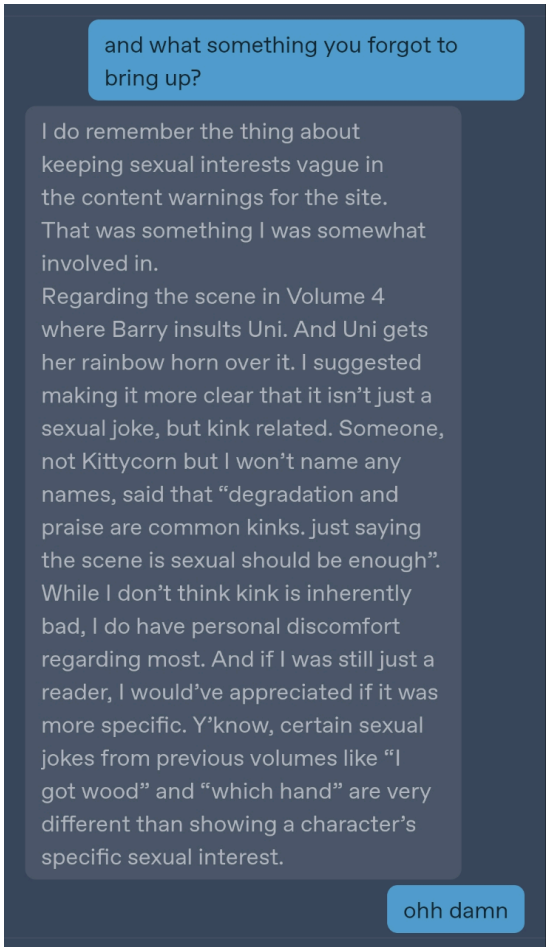
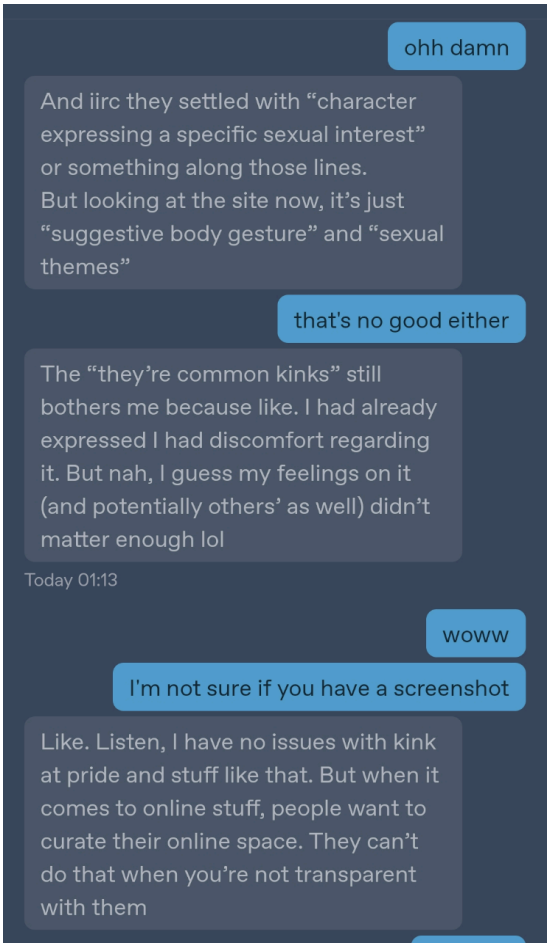
just allusions to weird shit that gets kitty off and nobody else
Emsody 10/24/2024 7:19 PM
girlies kinks are Out there. sorry

An anonymous ex-ZCP member came forward elaborating on fetish content of the Sparklecare Hospital Comic.



and what something you forgot to bring up?
I do remember the thing about keeping sexual interests vague in the content warnings for the site. That was something I was somewhat involved in.
Regarding the scene in Volume 4 where Barry insults Uni. And Uni gets her rainbow horn over it. I suggested making it more clear that it isn't just a sexual joke, but kink related. Someone, not Kittycorn but I won't name any names, said that "degradation and praise are common kinks. just saying the scene is sexual should be enough". While I don't think kink is inherently bad, I do have personal discomfort regarding most. And if I was still just a reader, I would've appreciated if it was more specific. Y'know, certain sexual jokes from previous volumes like "I got wood" and "which hand" are very different than showing a character's specific sexual interest.
ohh damn



ohh damn
And iirc they settled with "character expressing a specific sexual interest" or something along those lines.
But looking at the site now, it's just "suggestive body gesture" and "sexual themes" that's no good either
The "they're common kinks" still bothers me because like. I had already expressed I had discomfort regarding it. But nah, I guess my feelings on it (and potentially others' as well) didn't matter enough lol
Today 01:13
woww
I'm not sure if you have a screenshot
Like. Listen, I have no issues with kink at pride and stuff like that. But when it comes to online stuff, people want to curate their online space. They can't do that when you're not transparent with them ohh oki!

I don’t, I no longer have access to the server that was in.
ohh ok
It was the ZCP server. And ever since we’ve disbanded, I’ve no longer had any way of accessing it

FINAL NOTES:

Kittycorn (@Kneeby) is an incest fetishist and overall not a good person to take artistic inspiration from. She is unwell and would've continued to hide her true intentions about her comics if this document wasn't made. This document isn't encouraging harassment to any party involved, including Kittycorn herself. Be aware of what you read on the internet, including webcomics.

It's also important to note kc is an adult(24) and has been allowing minors and many people to consume this content despite knowing what it's truly being made for, trauma does not excuse actions but explains them.
